

Brahma Kumari Jayanti

She is an Additional Administrative Head of the Brahma Kumaris. Born in India, she moved with her family to London in 1957 at the age of 8. Her family was instrumental in bringing Raj Yoga to the West. As she returned to India over the years, she met the founder, Brahma Baba on many occasions and at age 19 she made the decision to pursue a life of spiritual study and service with the Brahma Kumaris.

Her unique childhood prepared her to bring the wisdom of the East to the West. She is an eloquent speaker and has spoken widely on climate change, applied values and spiritual practice. She is the regional coordinator for the Brahma Kumaris activities in Europe and the Middle East.
